

Western Love

Unlike Pluto

Maybe I'm a fire, like a Western Love
Maybe I'm a liar
Putting up a front, so I don't become
A fool on a wire
Loners in a crowd
Loners in a crowd
Fake morals, or lack thereof
It's not enough

I know that I'm not like you
I know that I'm not a fool
Before I learned what western love was
Before I would fall for anyone

Psychopath smile like a murder flick
Only bad intentions
Hide behind style and your politics
But no one ever mentions
Loners in a crowd
Loners in a crowd
Fake morals, or lack thereof
It's not enough

I know that I'm not like you
I know that I'm not a fool
Before I learned what western love was
Before I would fall for anyone

Corrupting, you're provoking my worst intent
Corroding, my sanity, no consequence
Before I learned what western love was
Before I would fall for anyone
