

For Me

UnoTheActivist

You know
Sometimes you gotta say, "Fuck everything else"

The smile that's on your face for me
It's the way you got good taste for me
It's the way you tell hoes to get away from me
It's the way we move so patiently
It's love or it's lust for me
Gotta have love and have trust with me
Gotta have one who can't get enough of me
It's up, you know it's stuck with me
I want you to know how I feel about you
I don't know if it's the drugs that got me loose about you
No, I'm not ashamed about you
You know I'm not ashamed about you
You know it ain't no games about you
You know it ain't no games about you

You know that you one of a kind
I'ma blow this bitch up if you play 'bout mine
They can't get me hit, huh, they can't sleep at night
They say we do it wrong, but I swear it feels so right
I wake up, look in the mirror, wonder if I'm livin' right
Don't know what you heard about me, but don't believe the hype
I'm trying to take you to new heights
Up all night, I hit her late night
Up all night, I hit her late night
Up all night, I hit her late night
(Ooh)
(Uno, I killed it)

The smile that's on your face for me
It's the way you got good taste for me
It's the way you tell hoes to get away from me
It's the way we move so patiently

You know I'm not ashamed about you
