

Forgery

UnoTheActivist

I want y'all to partake with the festivities, man
You know what I'm saying?
I just need y'all support, you dig?
What, ooh, what, what, what, what, ooh, what, what, dig, what, what, ooh, what, what, what, what (Uno, I killed it)

Yeah, when I walk in they like, "Who is that boy?"
Balmains sit on top of Off-White Air Force
Look at y'all niggas like y'all minors
Sipping that Act' every day, I am bored
You tried to fit in like you a minority
Every day good, we step closer to glory
Who said you niggas was stamped? That's forgery
Tripping to think I am dap, supporting you

How you get to your fourth quarter?
I know who can get the work 'cross the border
Say you want a bag, probably get it to you shorter
Got a lot of loads stashed up like a hoarder
And you know the Hellcat hold a lot of horses
Try to race me, better hold your horses
Can you speak up? Man, you looking so hoarse
And the .40 go click-click like Dorothy
No, you can't be my baby, abortion
Saint Laurent fabric the main course
I just wanna grow old with my bih', eat oysters
Twelve hunned just for these rings or the oysters
These racks shooting that bih' like Gordon
Big love, took control of your main organ
Yeah, I need a vase just to hold this water
Tats on my face just to say I'm warning you

Yeah, when I walk in they like, "Who is that boy?"
Balmains sit on top of Off-White Air Force
Look at y'all niggas like y'all minors
Sipping that Act' every day, I am bored
You tried to fit in like you a minority
Every day good, we step closer to glory
Who said you niggas was stamped? That's forgery
Tripping to think I am dap, supporting you
