

Miss Me

UnoTheActivist

(Damn, JULiA)

Oh, you grown now

Oh, you miss me?

Random phone calls, yeah, you miss me

Oh, you got a boyfriend now it's risky

Try one, try two, this is try three

Yeah, I know I hurt you, don't remind me

Been a little minute, yeah, you grown now

Got a car and a crib on your own now

You wanna know why I picked up the phone now?

'Cause I know you miss me, you wanna come home now

Oh, you miss me?

Just the other day you had dissed me

Oh, you miss me?

Why you acting like that, baby it's me

But you miss me

Real love probably gon' come around, but it's tricky

I know why you calling back

'Cause the nigga that you with ain't even all that

He a real big cap, he's the tall hat

And you said you was in love with him, I'ma fall back

Yeah, you say you love him but you ain't even mean that

'Cause you called my phone saying, "It's okay to see me"

No ears but I'm here for that

Popping bottles of Rosé and we can cheer to that

All that pain that you suffered, I'm healing that

I'ma big dog, the pussy, I'm killing that

Margiela dress, you be wearing that

All the times that I thought about your silhouette

All the times I caught you lurking on the Internet

Had to block you on my story, I wasn't feeling that

But I can't lie, I really miss your intellect

We're fucking all night like we ain't finna rest (Uno, I killed it)
