

Puffin On Act Pack

UnoTheActivist

What a time to live, I get so high, they remind me to live
And if I die, man, it is what it is
I was keeping it P, why they play with the kid?
Just like construction, make way for the kid
She get high, get the munchies then ate on the kid
My heart is too big, they hate on the kid
They tend to forget all the things that I did
I like to get high, feel alone when pain
Treat me like slave, got on all these chains
Hoes are just hoes, it's a part of the game
Hermes bracelet, Cartier ring
Calling her phone with a Cartier frame
Caught me out cheating and it never was the same
Sipping on juice while I'm listening to Juice WRLD
Brother wasn't capping, all these hoes all the same

Told her stop capping, I can upgrade you
Make a bitch Beyonce and she just was a lame
Listening to Future while I'm driving through the rain
Looking for the opps speaking down on my name
They turn they back on me, I'm acting savagely
Ask me to feed when they bite on my hand
God know I love him, I gotta pretend
Fly out the country on half of a Xan'
Came a long way, still trapping black ball
You cannot relate to the things that I saw
Nowadays, can't even walk through the mall
You going through Lenox, get shot in the mall
Bag it up, sell it, goes Perc' withdrawal
Come with felons from a halfway home
That brand new Bentayga, I'm halfway home
All white Aventador in the front of the Chrome
Ask how I feel to live life through a lens
I just tell 'em, "I'm chilling. I'm really ain't trim."
Bro got that bag and they say that I'm him
They want me to lose, but they see that I win
No Michael Jackson, but beat it little bitch
I'm appalled that you would compare me to them
For every hater I balled on, changing the weather, you fuck niggas better stay in
All about a bag-bag
She a bad bitch, fuck with me 'cause I'm a bad-ass
Florida slut, she'll blow your whole bag-bag
Listening to Future while I'm puffing on Act pack
My bih' from New York, I'm telling her act bad
I was in love with lean, I'm breaking my habit
So many carats, my watch is a Rabbit
The streets took my heart and I turned to a savage
Left me in the dark with nothing to see
The reason why nobody get higher than me
Can't cope with the pain so I sip on it
Tryna' take care of my health, R.I.P. Lil Keed
I came from the dirt, they planted the seed
My feelings can't hurt, they'll take everything
Sometimes I see my first ex in my dreams
A nigga had to wonder what do that mean

What a time to live, I get so high, they remind me to live
And if I die, man, it is what it is
I was keeping it P, why they play with the kid?
Just like construction, make way for the kid
