Maino!!!

This the only type nigga to stare directly in the sun
Some of y'all can't even stare in the mirror
(Dream, that shit go dummy)
It's the experience
UnoTheActivist
Niggas always know what to say
I never know the right words to say

All the touching and texting
The fucking and sexting
The late-night affection
All the angel aggression
Trying to progress
But I'm just a reflection
Looking for my protection
The demons are restless
I'm tryna get my weapon
The demons respect me
The angels protect me
To niggas, I'm a blessing

I'm just tryna find my way out
The drugs only talk right now
I'm just tryna find my way
But the pressure of depression is holding me down
Now I'm up and I'm restless
Angry and reckless
'Cause I'm on the edge now
Leaving and stressing
Screaming and sweating
When we having sex now
Yeah, we makin' love sounds
Bring a pretty bitch back to the trap house
Draco make a clap sound
Always held back and the times make a clack sound
All you niggas tryna flex now
All you niggas sit the fuck down
Ain't no feeling how I'm feeling now
Ain't no feeling how I'm feeling now
All you niggas sit the fuck down
Before you niggas hear a gun sound

I always feel selected
They know who I am now
I just be connected
We fucking unprotected
Do you know who I am now
When there's VV on my chest
And there's chains on my neck
You won't ever get me dressed down
Smoke another pound
Smoke another pound

All the touching and texting

The late-night affection
Trying to progress
Looking for my protection
The demons respect me
The angels protect me
To niggas, I'm a blessing
