Girl, you know you're the best
You got all these other hoes stressin'
Girl, you look so sexy
Never was the type to get messy
You look so impressed
Can't explain the feeling that's in my chest
There is something I must confess
Girl, your love is so refreshing

I think it's time to reset
I think it's time to reset
I think it's time to reset, yeah
I think it's time to reset
I think it's time to reset
I think it's time to reset, oh, yeah

It's time to start over
You're way more than a call-over
I stand on what I say, I cannot fall over
She fell in love before she made you fall over
We ain't playin' on it
It was in her hair with the strand on it
More private lifestyles and less fans in it
I wanna take your lifestyle and expand on it
I wanna start over
They wasn't ready for the play, I rolled the ball over
I made some killers stand in line, I had a barcode
They was waitin' for me to blow up like a star explode
It was a very soft girl, but cut my heart open
Got so much love for the street, but can't get the car to open
She invest in love with me just like a stock broker
We gon' make a couple million, see if Mars open

Girl, you know you're the best
You got all these other hoes stressin'
Girl, you look so sexy
Never was the type to get messy
You look so impressed
Can't explain the feeling that's in my chest
There is something I must confess
Girl, your love is so refreshing

I think it's time to reset
I think it's time to reset
I think it's time to reset, yeah
I think it's time to reset
I think it's time to reset
I think it's time to reset, oh, yeah

For your love, I am a fiend
I said, for your love, I am a fiend
But I gotta get this money by any means
Said she got her own money, thought it was a dream
She gon' wind it slow me, she start to tease
When we havin' sex, we do it 'til we can hardly breathe
Time to put some rank on it, it's ten degrees
Gotta wear the best and all I said was, "Best believe"

I'll put some cheddar up for any rat that's dissin' me
Put Berettas up on any nigga that's dissin' me
I was gone for ten minutes, she missin' me
Know these niggas hatin' on us, it's killin' me
Got a little Asian ass ho, she Philippine
I feel the vibration, I'm matching the frequencies
All these niggas callin' your phone, bitch, let it ring
Guess I just want us to live the American dream

Girl, you know you're the best
You got all these other hoes stressin'
Girl, you look so sexy
Never was the type to get messy
You look so impressed
Can't explain the feeling that's in my chest
There is something I must confess
Girl, your love is so refreshing
