Table

Puttin' it all on the table
I'm puttin' it all on the table
They said I wasn't stable
They said I was never able
Why they be tellin' these fables?
Why they be tellin' these fables?
Why they be tellin' these fables?
I'm puttin' it all on the table
I put it on tables
Puttin' it all on the table
They told me I wasn't able
They told me my love wasn't stable
They said that these guns wasn't stable
Then I left his brains on the table
I know who's the one feelin' painful

They know I'm ragin', I'm agin', you know it's changin' me
Why they be hatin' on me?
All I was doing was being me
On a new brain wave, finding myself doing DMT
Smoked a new strain today, seen the opps and it was RIP
I'ma go up, that's regardless, don't give a fuck who not believing in me
Gave 'em my heart and they used and abused it, I need a new one like a warranty
Lot of niggas think this shit dying out, then I pull up and kill 'em, the savage in me
Free all them niggas that's doin' time for all them petty crimes, that is so tragic to me
I cannot fuck with no bitch that got way too much shit goin' on, it's the baggage for me
I'm in Atlanta, I'm dozin' off Wock' in that Hellcat, you know I got savage with me
I woke up this morning, it was a good day, but these niggas want it to be bad for me
My heart on my sleeve and this shit on the table, why do you wanna get the last of me?
