Time after time she blow up my line
Thought you were the plug why my shit be lying
I can't even trust her she tryna be slimed
I can't feel these diamonds she drop in and die
I can't even trust these bitches
I won't ever trust no bitches
I can't even not fuck these bitches
I can't ever trust these bitches

I'm kicking these bitches I'm pimping

I just might splash with the sauce
Still I can never sail
Boy I'm still calling these hoes
She want my heart but it's froze
She cuffing like Ferragamo
I step over her Margiela

Time after time she hit my line bae you was just on my mind
And it be better old enough to be with me
Drug addict on everything
Ain't telling what she was saying and she done turn 18
She on don't know what that think
Fuck with any nigga had to put her up on gang
Tired of the same nigga and she looking for some change
When I first met you you were so special
Now I look at you you are the devil

All that bullshit all that's you
Finna throw that pussy at me
I ain't got no patience hurry up and get naked
New hoe Caucasian wanna turn me into the Matrix
Never said I was a player but no I won't get played
'Cause there's too much on my plate so be careful heartbreak

I might slime one of these bitches I might just find one these bitches
She thinking she slicker than Rick swiper no swiping these bitches
I'm coming in with the brick I might just outline a little nigga
I just might find the little nigga
I feel like lying a bitch
I feel like I'm dying I'm getting it
If I ain't trying these bitches
And I get them right out the Thinking these bitches wanna steal
She cannot come up in here
Pistol get down up in here

Time after time she blow up my line
Thought you were the plug why my shit be lying
I can't even trust her she tryna be slimed
I can't feel these diamonds she drop in and die
