

Dark, Silent And Complete

Unprocessed

Eat dust, compete, dream bad at night, repeat
Eat dust, compete, dream bad at night, repeat

Eat dust, compete, dream bad at night, repeat
Stop waiting for a miracle
No trust in life, faith turns into nihilism
When did I start being so cynical?

Step into the unknown
Step into the unknown
Step into the unknown

Now that I've lost all hope, the fallen angels my guardians
Low is my will to cope and dark the spirits that I summon
Bleed in the illusion, worthless and alone
I'm giving up, through that I'll find myself

I'll find myself
I'll find myself

Begging for asylum
Darkness be my guidance
Waiting for the silence
Waiting for the silence

I feel a fire burning through
And my desire, it always finds a way to show
I'll take what's mine and leave some notes
I feel okay, if I'm here all alone

I feel a fire burning through
And my desire, it always finds a way to show (A way to show)
I'll take what's mine and leave some notes
I feel okay, if I'm here all alone (All alone)

When it arrives, I want you to know
It's been a fight, it's dark and silent, and complete
And complete

It's dark and silent, and complete
It's dark and silent, and complete
