

Dinner

Unprocessed

Wash away the sins
Lose your innocence
See the world on long ways through the windowsill
Betrayal will prevail before the sun sees the day
Feast upon my flesh
Lay my soul to rest
Repeat prophecies in gospel go down on your knees
'Cause I'm scared of you

I hold my breath when you cross my path 'cause I'm listening
We're almost there
Almost revealing you
'Cause I'm about to go

Trying with you
Crying for you

Wash away the sins
Lose your innocence
See the world on long ways through the windowsill
Betrayal will prevail before the sun sees the day
Feast upon my flesh
Lay my soul to rest
Repeat prophecies in gospel go down on your knees
Yeah, I'm scared of you

I hold my breath when you cause my death
And it's sickening
But I'm prepared
It's almost healing my soul
And I'm about to fade

Trying with you
Crying for you
