

Hell

Unprocessed

God's disciple
Today marks the day of arrival
The end of the world's denial
This is what we have become

Tonight is the night of the rivals
A fight between two messiahs
A fight between wind and fire
I need retribution now

Hell is a place right in my chest
It's burning in me
And all these lies I can't confess
They're showing slowly

Hell is a place right in my chest
It's burning in me
And all these lies I can't confess
They're showing slowly

I kneel before my Lord, the newborn King
The Antichrist has risen (The Antichrist has risen)
And even though I know I'll always be a sheep of God

Hell is a place right in my chest
It's burning in me
And all these lies I can't confess
They're showing slowly

Struggling
To begin the story
Tragedies
That have been unfolding
They made me who I am
And made me bury my past
My past

I
I have become my own gate to Hell
I have become my own gate to Hell

Hell is a place right in my chest
It's burning in me
And all these lies I can't confess
They're showing slowly

Struggling
To begin the story
Tragedies
That have been unfolding
They made me who I am
And made me bury my past
My past
