

Malleable

Unprocessed

As particles start to float
Conforming
The shape of my matter by grasping my way out of the lifeform once known
Incompressible state of absence
The universe is now captured in world of endlessness

Aspiring
Absence of matter
Conforming
Switching aggregate
Floating
Silent motion
Expanding my vision

Swallow me as a whole
Before the lights cut through the surface
Pull me like a swirl
Deep
Take me to the origin
Another colour that completes the picture

Swallow me as a whole
Into a reef of wreckage
Pull me like a swirl
Deep
Take me to the origin
Another colour that completes the picture

Aspiring
The infinite absence of matter
Conforming
Switching aggregate
Floating
The infinite absence of matter
Aspiring
Silent motion
Takes its flow
