

Every day I wake up without thinking all too much
Don't feel intimidation in your gaze and touch
I know there's an evening to the days and go
To a world where I don't mind the things I can't control

I live for the moment now
Silent I'm not thinking loud
Violence, I don't mind when you just go
And when your heart is beating slow

Show me what you're hiding
I can see it shining
I can see that light in your eyes you're lying
I don't, I don't wanna lose you

Show me what you're hiding
I can see it shining
I will miss the times that got me excited
I don't, I don't wanna lose you now

Put your arms around me now
Say you won't stab my back
I want to trust you so much but can't so
Can you hear what I say?

I live for the moment now
Silent I'm not thinking loud
Violence, I don't mind when you just go
And when your heart is beating slow

Show me what you're hiding
I can see it shining
I can see that light in your eyes you're lying
I don't, I don't wanna lose you

Show me what you're hiding
I can see it shining
I will miss the times that got me excited
I don't, I don't wanna lose you now
