Ocean

Unprocessed

The sand that's on my feet still makes me feel
I'm home after a long way through the drought
Your waves lull me to sleep
Until they shake me awake

I'm like a sinking ship that shatters on your face
No one senses smoke signals
I'm like a sinking ship that shatters on your face
On your face

The air I breathe is clear and full of life
The shore seems peaceful as your waves arise
And the dunes offer me shelter
From the cold winds

Deep blue ocean, take me through the night
Soak me into your ever-changing tides
'Cause I'm the only boy without a gun
Catch my glance I'm 'bout to run

You are the ocean
I'm a sinking ship on the waves
Always in motion
Come let me feel your sway

Deep blue ocean, take me through the night
Soak me into your ever-changing tides
'Cause I'm the only boy without a gun
Catch my glance I'm 'bout to run
'Bout to run
