

Ruins

Unprocessed

Combat in the deserts sand
Watching from the thrones
A darker future lies ahead
Risen from the fog
They stand within the ancient ruins
Fighting to survive
Superior than human soul
Artificial life

I'm in the midst of screaming crowds now
The howling slaves await Encountering the golden crowns now
It's everybody's fate

I see the ruins rise from ash and dust
I see machines fight until they rust

Enlighten me
Of the ever-change
Blasting voices ruling lands
Sharp texture
Septic flesh
They dive into the clawing hands
Demonstrating their warfare

My combat in the deserts sand now
I'm watching from the throne
A darker future lies ahead now
