

Sacrifice Me

Unprocessed

Dive into the dark 'cause I'm drowning
In these waters that you forsake
I feel the weight pulling me down
In these depths where I can't be found

Dive into the dark 'cause I'm drowning
In these waters that you forsake
I feel the weight pulling me down
Follow me to a world where we can't be found

I feel myself when you are around
I couldn't tell when I was alone
I peeled the skin from the old bones
We couldn't care less about the truth
You, you carved my soul out of my very heart
And wrenched my blood to make us last

Dive into the dark 'cause I'm drowning
In these waters that you forsake
I feel the weight pulling me down
Follow me to a world where we can't be found

You form my body like a melted candle
You spread my waxes into every direction
You blow me out like a fire at nighttime
You saved me when I was falling, now you draw me in
And leave no trace of life left in me
Leave me hanging upside down
Sacrifice me
Yeah, sacrifice me

Dive into the dark 'cause I'm drowning
In these waters that you forsake
I feel the weight pulling me down
In these depths where I can't be found
Found

Sacrifice me in the dark, in the cold
Sacrifice me, leave me in the woods alone
Sacrifice me, feast me like a cannibal
Sacrifice me, I'm an addict, you're my Adderall
Sacrifice me at the altar, at the throne
They advised me to never really call you home
But I don't care anymore
Sacrifice me
Sacrifice me
