

Already Won

Unspoken.

There's a lot of speculation
From all the haters out there hatin'
Talkin' you, "No you ain't gonna make it"
But ha you already made it
Roll out the red carpet
And let the party get started
Hear that round of applause
Ya, they're playin' your song

You know it's about time
To start living like

There's no mountain high enough that you can't move
No valley low enough to hold you down
You're a fighter
Got that fire deep inside you
You can't lose
'Cause you've already won
You've already won

Everybody had their doubts
Thought you were down for the count
But you get up like a champion
Check it, that's who you've always been
'Cause you're a child of the Most High
Royalty in your bloodline

And you know it's about time
To start living like, living like

There's no mountain high enough that you can't move
No valley low enough to hold you down
You're a fighter
Got that fire deep inside you
You can't lose
You've already won
You've already won

You don't have to work so hard, work so hard
Just rest, remember who you are, whose you are (You are)
Chosen, forgiven
You are a citizen
Seated in heavenly places
You're filled with the Spirit
The power, the love
You are a new creation
You got the power (Ooh)
You got the power (Ooh)
You got the power (Ooh)
You got the power (Ayy)
You got the power (Ooh)
You got the power (Ooh)
You got the power (Ooh)
Now's your time

There's no mountain high enough that you can't move
No valley low enough to hold you down

You're a fighter
Got that fire deep inside you
You can't lose
You've already won
You've already won
You've already won (You got the power, you got the power, you got the power)
You've already won (You got the power, you got the power, you got the power)

You got the power, you got the power, you got the power
You got the power, you got the power, you got the power
