

Welcome, death has arrived

They came in waves
There must be thousands now
The sky split open while hell rained down
Where will we hide?
There's nowhere to escape their eyes
In panic we flee
Spectacular weaponry melts us off our feet

We will not survive
They've won
The end of humankind
Our time is up

We rally our forces
We put up a fight
Call in reinforcements
There's death on our doorstep
No mercy, no hope left

We're bunkered in
I got one round left that I'll save for my head
The apocalypse
A new world is dawning
The devils upon us

We could not survive
We've lost
The end of humankind
Our time is up

The earths taken hostage
No heroes
No might
Brave voices go silent
Death to those who do not comply

There's nowhere to run to
There's nowhere to hide
We're going to find you
You will fall in line

One flag now stands
All hail the lizard king
Your lives belong to me
No questions
Do not resist
We've usurped your governments
Dismantle your religions
Your world remains ignorant
This is the end

We rallied our forces
We put up a fight
Called in reinforcements
We're all gonna die
