

Cast Away

Until I Wake

Far off away from here, a life awaits for me
I'll fall off and disappear into serenity

Cast away, inside a castle that is crumbling
Outside these walls I feel it call my name
Forever left to wonder what's for me

So tell me my friend
If you were left here for dead
Who the fuck you think cares?
An apparition
A skeleton at your best
Because you've got nothing left

No matter how much I pray
I can't escape this hell
It's hard to remember ways
When you know you've lost yourself
(Lost yourself)

Cast away, inside a castle that is crumbling
Outside these walls I feel it call my name

Cast away
Forever left to wonder what's for me this time
I suffocate under the weight
Hidden away buried again now
Running afraid, nothing makes sense
I dilapidate, I'm gone with the wind

Cast away, inside a castle that is crumbling
Outside these walls I feel it call my name

For what it's worth
I've shown myself
I've shed this blood
For nothing else
I'll leave behind
Each memory
Laced with the words
Remember me
