

Eclipse

Until I Wake

Starting to see, a flaw inside the chemistry
Surrounding me, the dark inside was killing me
But now I know, it might be time to let it go
A voice behind the madness
I hear a call for me

Oh slivering, behind the silhouette
The infinite cast its avidity
No more will I live inside the shadow
Casting over me

No more will I ignore the signs
Give in to light...

Hidden, can you see it?
Behind all the mess is the meaning
Hidden, can you see it?
Look to find what's behind this pain

Even obscured, I see
Distorted, this light
Positioned to the sky I
Keep my eyes locked to the stars
Celestial, omnipresence
Calls me beyond the clouds

Hidden, can you see it?
Behind all the mess is the meaning
Hidden can you see it?
Look to find what's behind this pain

So give me the sight to see beyond what's
Hindering me from the key of life

So give me the sight to see beyond what's
Hindering me from the key of life
So give me sight to see beyond this
Giving myself up to the eclipse
