

Fake

Until I Wake

I wanna see all your walls fall down
I wanna see where it all breaks
What will you do when I call you out?
When I'm getting up in your face

Now every time you sneak by
Is a chance I can catch you slipping
And I've got eyes, bide your time
'Cause you know that I'm always listening

Fake, I don't believe a word you say
You're so obvious it kills me
Got me screaming at the ceiling
Fake, it's like I only know your name
An empty promise without meaning
You're dishonest, you're deceiving

I wanna see all your walls fall down
I wanna see where it all breaks
What will you do when I call you out?
When I'm getting up in your face

And every time that you lie
Is a number I've been keeping
Identified all your crimes
I'm exposing all your secrets

I wanna tear you down
I wanna rip you apart
Until you're hollowed out
I'm going straight for the heart

Fake, I don't believe a word you say
You're so obvious it kills me
Got me screaming at the ceiling
Fake, it's like I only know your name
An empty promise without meaning
You're dishonest, you're deceiving

I hope you break when you think of me
I still can't help but question
Some things that you wouldn't mention
I pray that I'll hear you say
You had no bad intentions, a confession
That you've learned your lesson

Fake, I don't believe a word you say
You're so obvious it kills me
Got me screaming at the ceiling
Fake, it's like I only know your name
An empty promise without meaning
You're dishonest, you're deceiving

Now every time you sneak by
Is a chance I can catch you slipping (you're so fake)
Identified all your crimes
I'm exposing all your secrets

Fake, it's like I only know your name
An empty promise without meaning
You're dishonest, you're deceiving
