

I'm alive but I'm not well
I struggle just to feel something
I feel trapped inside myself
I have to tell myself that I can breathe
Is there something that can help?
The feelings that have swallowed me
Will the memories I leave the ones I love
Be enough for them to miss me when I'm gone?

Live every moment like it's the last thing that you'll see
Put all your focus into the legacy you'll leave
There's no knowing when you and death will finally meet

If I'm alive then I can't tell
I wonder when I'll feel something
Always fighting with myself
Like someone's there that I can't see
Is there something that can help?
The thoughts that have control of me

Will the memories I leave the ones I love
Be enough for them to miss me when I'm gone?

Live every moment like it's the last thing that you'll see
Put all your focus into the legacy you'll leave
There's no knowing when you and death will finally meet

When you feel the weight of the world start to crush down on your chest
When your thoughts spin out of control and you're questioning what's next

Live every moment like it's the last thing that you'll see
Put all your focus into the legacy you'll leave
There's no knowing when you and death will finally meet
I'm alive but I'm not well
(You and death will finally meet)
I struggle just to feel something
I feel trapped inside myself
You and death will finally meet
