

Renovate

Until I Wake

Let me in

Sun fell into my eyes
Felt darkness slowly fade from me
Only to realize
This pain looks better washed away
What purity I finally found
In reconstructing what's within
'Cause underneath I know that I

I'd leave it all
Give everything I have
I'd leave it all
To recreate myself
Rebuilding this new shape
From the mistakes I've made
Learn what it means to renovate

Got lost inside my mind
Felt like this storm would never end
Only to realize
This rain is what was meant for me
To break me down, uncovering
The person I could never see
'Cause underneath I know that I

I'd leave it all
Give everything I have
I'd leave it all
To recreate myself
Rebuilding this new shape
From the mistakes I've made
Learn what it means to renovate

Show me what it means to feel alive
I know the chance is that it won't be perfect
I feel the world waiting for me to shine
My heart is aching for a life that's worth it
Show me what it means to feel alive
I know the chance is that it won't be perfect
I feel the world waiting for me to shine
My heart is aching for a life that's worth it

I'd leave it all
Give everything I have
I'd leave it all
To recreate myself
Rebuilding this new shape
From the mistakes I've made
Learn what it means to renovate
