

The Reverence

Until I Wake

Thought your words would bury me
Now you're outta luck
I'd put myself 6 feet deep
Before I'd ever give a fuck

Throw all your stones
Let's see whose house is glass
Pray you don't choke
On all your ignorance
We break the ground
And walk down our own path
Fuck those oppoosed, this is our reverence

Go ahead, you want to try and stop us
For centuries, your kind has feasted on the Weak, parasitically crawling in our ears
Hoping that you'll devour dreams. But it
Seems to me, the more I focus on myself, the Less you get from me. Go and find another
Dick to suck you fucking coward cause I'm Leveling up. (Fuck it up)
I won't let your lies sink in
Its not your life, this is mine to live

Throw all your stones
Let's see whose house is glass
Pray you don't choke
On all your ignorance
We break the ground
And walk down our own path
Fuck those opposed, this is our reverence

Cast your stones
Find yourself underneath them all
Food for the worms
6 feet deep in the ground
Come and take your best shot
You fucking chump
Come make you move
If you've got the guts
