

Fame

Unto Others

Fame
Life is just a game
That is what you say
The winners smile when the losers say
"I don't wanna play"

Fame
You will be a star
Life will take you far
You know just who you're going to be
Do you know who you are?

Fame
Now you're catching on fire
Beautiful in the light
But burning one too many nights
You're running out of time now

Pain
Indescribable pain
The beauty often fades
And people hate when people change
Hmm, Shame

All on your own
Such a shame to die
Old and all alone
Old and all alone

All on your own
Such a shame to die
Old and all alone
Old and all alone

On your own
Another night you cry
Old and all alone
Old and all alone

Another, another, another
Another, another, another
Another, another, another
Another, another, another
Another, another, another
Another, another, another
Another, another, another
Another, another
