

Why

Unto Others

Once again, the same old story
I've gotta make the rent
I've gotta eat the same old shit
And see what the day has in store for me
I wish that I could sleep
But I've got to keep on moving

I always wonder why
I always wonder why
I suffer to survive
And why
I've gotta stay alive (yeah)
Why should I love my fellow man
Why

All in all, the world keeps on turning
You and I are free
To be who we want to be
But still, this pain washes over me
I don't know what to do
I don't know what I'm doing
