UNWELL

Tell me a story
Something new
Something distracting
From you

What's it like on the other side?
'Cause I'm dying to know
Is the sun still shining
For you?

What's it like on the other side?
'Cause I'm dying to know
Oh, I've tried many times
But I'm scared I'll be alone, alone, alone

Alone, alone, alone
Alone, alone, alone

I see your shadow
In a still, forgotten room
You left a silence
I'm not used to

Your number on my phone, I call, you're never home
I'm ready for you but I'm scared to be alone

What's it like on the other side?
'Cause I'm dying to know
Oh, I've tried many times
But I'm scared I'll be alone

What's it like? What's it like?
What's it, what's it, what's it like?

Tell me a story
Tell me, please
Something new

What's it like on the other side?
'Cause I'm dying to know
Oh, I've tried many times
But I'm scared I'll be alone
What's it like on the other side?
'Cause I'm dying to know
Oh, I've tried many times
But I'm scared I'll be alone

Every day, I hope for a new beginning
But in the end
I wake up to a life that never wanted me
