

Clueless

UNWELL

Am I the only one
That's scared of
Wait what was I singin' earlier
Oh dude wait I just had it
I'm scared of what's to

No clue, no direction
So sick of my reflection
But I can't, I can't spend one more
Second of my time
Waiting for the rest of my life

Feelin' stuck in life again
Will I ever be content
With bein' where I am today
I'm 23 with a degree
No job or salary
To get me where I wanna be
Am I the only one
That's scared of what's yet to come

No clue, no direction
So sick of my reflection
But I can't, I can't spend one more
Second of my time
Waiting for the rest of my life
No clue, no direction
Won't face my own rejection
But I can't, I can't spend one more
Second of my time
Wonderin' what I'm gonna do with my life

Changin' course, yeah every week
Searchin' for some inner peace
While tryna find my own two feet
23 and I can't speak
Without feelin' small or weak
I can't escape anxiety
Am I the only one
That's scared of what's yet to come

No clue, no direction
So sick of my reflection
But I can't, I can't spend one more
Second of my time
Waiting for the rest of my life
No clue, no direction
Won't face my own rejection
But I can't, I can't spend one more
Second of my time

Am I the only one
Am I the only one
That's scared of what's to come
I'm stuck between the hope
That I had once

Am I the only one
That's scared of what's to come
That I had once

I can't, I can't spend one more
Second of my time

But I can't, I can't spend one more
