

Conqueror

UNWELL

You come in like a king
With your promises in silver and gold
And we both know
Know how it goes
Oh, your heart was made of stone
Called it loyalty, but I was left alone
Left alone

Hard to say you ever tried
'Cause what'd you ever sacrifice?
And that crown you never earned
Built entirely of lies

Destroyed our past
You conqueror
Stabbed in the back
You conqueror
Hope it fights and it bites and tears you up inside
What happens next?
You conqueror

Dressed like royalty, you really played your part
But beneath that crown, there hid an empty heart
Every scar's a lesson that I learned
Never knew the cost till every bridge was burned
Bridge was burned

Destroyed our past
You conqueror
Stabbed in the back
You conqueror
Hope it fights and it bites and tears you up inside
What happens next?
You conqueror

Conqueror, you conqueror
Conqueror, you conqueror
Hope it fights and it bites and tears you up inside
Conqueror, you conqueror

You come in like a king
With your promises in silver and gold
And we both know
Know how it goes

Destroyed our past
You conqueror
Stabbed in the back
You conqueror
Hope it fights and it bites and tears you up inside
What happens next?
You conqueror
