

Fool Truth

Up Dharma Down

Is it true?
You're a fool, baby
For making me feel brand new
And you touch, your touch
Before you lose your mind

You're not making sense, love
Stop breaking my heart
So tired of trying
When the fire burns out, wooah

You're a fool, baby
All I say is what I mean to do
To fall for your cries
Such a fool for those eyes

Can't see through me
And I can't walk on by
Just one look
And I'll try to please you

Am I making sense, love?
Yeah it's tearing me apart
So tired of crying
Holding back from the start, baby

Yeah, lie to me
You don't have to love me, baby
Lie to me
Make sure I'll believe you, baby
Lie to me

You don't have to love me, baby
Lie to me
I'll make sure I'll believe you
Lie to me

You don't have to love me, baby
Lie to me
I'll make sure I'll believe you
Lie to me
