

Say Nothing

Up Dharma Down

So this is how we are to say
We had our turn but it can't stay
Some days were good when you were mine
And I was yours too

But the feeling ain't no good
Thought I believe it more than we should
Close the door, don't want it no more
This is the end of forever
Cause nothing really matters anymore

I was wrong and you were right
Does it really matter anymore
Trying to fight it day and night
For our lives to come together

But the feeling ain't no good
If I hurt it more than we should
We come to terms with our differences
Now nothing really matters anymore

Nothing really matters anymore

Oh, the promises they have been broken
Oh, somethings return and some words were left unspoken
Cause we're just people being people
Now there's no starting all over again

Cause nothing really matters anymore
Nothing really matters anymore
Saying nothing really matters anymore
Say nothing really matters
Nothing really matters

It's not you, it's not me
We'll never gonna be, yeah yeah
It's not you, it's not me
We'll never gonna be

Hey baby...
Hey baby...
Hey baby...
Hey baby...
