I can almost see it but I can't
I can almost figure it out but I can't
Every morning when I open my eyes
I smile at the thought of you
I don't know why I'm like this all day
I don't know my heart

Every morning when it becomes bright
My heart trembles at the dream of you last night
I can almost see it but I can't, I don't know
I want to know your heart

Actually, I've never given out my number to anyone before
I've never been attracted to someone
Like I've been bewitched
Just seeing once makes me happy
Just looking at you makes my heart race
I can almost see it but I can't
I can almost figure it out but I can't
My heart

Actually, I just really like you
My heart's never been attracted to someone like this
Just seeing you once makes me happy
Just looking at you makes my heart race
I can almost see it but I can't
I can almost figure it out but I can't
I want to know your heart

Every morning when I open my eyes
I smile at the thought of you
I can almost see it but I can't, I don't know
I want to know your heart

Actually, I've never given out my number to anyone before
I've never been attracted to someone
Like I've been bewitched
Just seeing you once makes me happy
Just looking at you makes my heart race
I can almost see it but I can't
I've fallen for you

Woo I don't know my heart (my heart)
I might confess to you
(I might be waiting)
My pounding heart, my racing heart
You know my heart
You know even if I don't say it

Actually, I've never felt this way before
I've never fell for someone

At first sight
Just looking at you
Makes my heart race
I can almost see it but I can't
I can almost figure it out but I can't
My heart

Actually, I want to confess to you
My trembling heart
I want to tell you
Just seeing you once makes me happy
Just looking at you makes my heart race
I'll confess my heart to you now
I like you
