Hello
What you doing
I wanna make you mine
Let's go
You're my everything, everything
Everything in life
My entire body is getting filled with you
Even the start and end to my day
You have made my world
So beautiful

Hey girl, don't you know how to knock?
How did you open and enter my heart?

Without a sound, you entered into me
When I snapped out of it, I realized you were laying on my heart
Never felt these emotions before, I hear a fantasia
Coming into my heart happily
After I met you, my heart is like new
Feels like all 365 days in one year are my birthdays

You're sweet like honey
Making my mind go out of it
I'm falling for you like this

You're my everything, everything
Everything in life
My entire body is getting filled with you
Even the start and end to my day
You have made my world
So beautiful

You're so bright that I shut my eyes
Now I'm used to your light so I'm opening them wide
My assurance and feelings became stronger
Than the first heart flutterings
I don't know if you know
Like a cozy sofa, I'm right behind you
You can lean on me, I exist for you
Even if I lose everything in the world
Your hands will hold my hands
That's everything to me

I'm so ecstatic like it's a dream
I'm touching your cheek
I guess this is love

You're my everything, everything
Everything in life
My entire body is getting filled with you
Even the start and end to my day
You have made my world
So beautiful

Every day, my love grows
Stay by my side as if it's natural
Every day, my love gets deeper
My life is complete because of you
Every day, my love grows
Smile for me like you're happy
Every day, my love gets deeper
Everything in the world is you

When we're together
It feels like the world has stopped
Even the dazzling sun
Even the flowers that smell like you
I will give it all to you

You're my everything, everything
Everything in life
I can't stop, endlessly
My heart is overwhelmed
Hard times, good times
Always be with me

Every day, my love grows

Stay by my side as if it's natural
Every day, my love gets deeper
My life is complete because of you
Every day, my love grows
Smile for me like you're happy
Every day, my love gets deeper

Be with me
