Say woo I wanna say woo

Softly you spread the scent of your fragrance
I have been falling into your eye gaze
I can't keep holding into you who asking for a break up
(She is my love, you are my love)

Your eyes keep avoiding me everyday

Never ending, there will be no end for us now, lemme go
Never ending, we can't end this now, lemme confess

Say woo I wanna say woo

I hate those eye gaze of yours, don't like
Why I need to keep say I like you everyday?
You don't know that I hate those
But why you keep giving me that eye gaze
When I tried to hold your hands, you'll pushed me away
When I hugged you, you shoved me away
You are always being cold and it makes me a bit angry
Let's re-think about it, how nice I am to you?

I can't keep holding into you who asking for a break up
(She is my love, you are my love)

Your eyes keep avoiding me everyday

Never ending, there will be no end for us now, lemme go
Never ending, we can't end this now, lemme confess

Say woo I wanna say woo

Even when I close both of my eyes
I still have lot of thought
I can't sleep and still thinking about you today
I want you girl, I wrote this for you

Never ending, there will be no end for us now, lemme go
Never ending, we can't end this now, lemme confess

Say woo I wanna say woo
