Phoenix phoenix phoenix phoenix
My heart is burning and bouncing
To the scent of your melody
I always has this desire as it will be exploded
I can't show it to you yet
How you opened my heart with a rapid fire
Don't give up, in any time I will
I'll try to get closer to you more if I have more chance

Come on do it something baby
When I opened my eyes in other dimension
Come on do it something baby
A night when there is two moons for us
I'm going with another heat
Help me to reborn myself
As I'm looking at you, and following you
Oh baby

Come on baby on my world
You are another world
You are the world that I wanna stay
You are another world
Get rid of my eternal heat

Amazing, you're light as feather
You who didn't say anything when I bring you up
You opened quite some hearts that following you
A destiny only for you
It's like a dream, I've been looking at you forever
The more heat that I have
I will reborn again
(The scent of your melody, the scent of your melody)
Yeah I can see it more baby
As our hearts pounding together

Come on do it something baby
When I opened my eyes in other dimension
Come on do it something baby
A night when there is two moons for us
I'm going with another heat
Help me to reborn myself
As I'm looking at you, and following you
Oh baby

Come on baby on my world
You are another world
You are the world that I wanna stay
You are another world
Get rid of my eternal heat
Get rid all of this eternal heat

You are another world the world the world
You are another world the world the world

Come on baby on my world
You are another world
You are the world that I wanna stay
(Now you can start following me again)
You are another world
(You are another world)
Get rid of my eternal heat

I want to reborn again inside of your world
Once again, there will be two moons, one for night
I want to reborn my self inside this world

Once again, get rid of my eternal heat
