If you ain't from down here then you don't know the slang
From the city to the country we the same
Fifth wheel motion can he stay wetter than the rain?
Come to Houston I'ma show you how to swing
Grew up on that H-Town shit
Big Mo, big chain, big car, big rims, big bank
On the southside we talkin' 'bout mane
I change hoes like I change clothes and change lanes
Look here, south west resident
Fuck politics but love dead presidents
Do the thing leave the scene leave no evidence
Y'all don't have to act like 69 to stay relevant
All these hoes on IG always out on vacation
We know the type of dudes that's gonna take 'em
I just pray for 'em baby
Get a tan but what's the price that they're playin'?
Your pride is worth more than the post that you're makin'
Baby girl, I'm just sayin'
Candy red with the leather so soft
Lookin' clean, make a scene and burn off
Yeah, t2. and the big Church dog
Will ride the beat 'til the shit turn off, til the shit turn off

I swear to God we on some southside shit
Whole squad on some southside shit
'Cause we go so hard
I swear to God we on some southside shit
Whole squad on some southside shit

This that nostalgic kinda vibe
S10 four banger back in 2009
No shoes, no shirt, temperature be 89
Little honey from the river with some fresh tan lines
This that puffin' on some chronic, got the window slide
The best day ever back when Mac was alive
I can almost smell the parkin' lot when I close my eyes
Tell that big booty waitress need a shake with the fries, ahh
That's that LG Chocolate roller skate them digits in Back when ladies wasn't slidin' in the Instagram
She had 20 more questions, I was her best friend

Never said "What's love got to do with it there"
Ayy

Whole squad on some southside shit
'Cause we go so hard
I swear to God we on some southside shit
