

Another Ghost

Upon a Burning Body

Echos turn into blades
As the voice of reason fades away
Cleansed by the flame

The marks you hide
Tell a story of pain
The world was yours to take
Your fire burned away
Remember all the times we shared
Until the ashes held no flames
This hold is drifting you away

The sound of crashing waves
I won't let you drift into the darkness

Deep down in a hole you're falling
I'm reaching out to a soul that's calling
And I won't speak to another ghost
I didn't hear the others calling
But there's still time to catch you falling
And I won't speak to another ghost

I get sleepless nights
Thinking of ways I can save you
There's a hole inside
And I can't reach you!
The sound of crashing waves

Capsize
You're drowning in the waves

Deep down in a hole you're falling
I'm reaching down to a soul that's calling out

Your fire burned away
Until the ashes held no flames

Deep down in a hole you're falling
I'm reaching out to a soul that's calling
And I won't speak to another ghost
I didn't hear the others calling
But there's still time to catch you falling
And I won't speak to another ghost
