

I guess I used it up
This space, there's not enough
I used you way too much
And I guess you had enough
So I gotta tell you

I've been so caught up with myself
That I forgot to say I'm sorry
I'm so sorry
And even though we're both alone
You know you're still up on my brain
Hope you're okay

Now you won't take my calls
I'm going through withdrawals
You used to tell me how we'd get through
I wish I could be back in those shoes
I set us up to lose

I've been so caught up with myself
That I forgot to say I'm sorry
I'm so sorry
And even though we're both alone
You know you're still up on my brain
Hope you're okay

I've been so selfish
Never thought you'd be the one who got away
I wish you stayed
Should have enjoyed the view
'Cause now all I see is your face
Hope you're okay

I'm the bad guy
I didn't mean for us to fall from this high (From this high)
We lost the high (High)
And even though we're both alone
You know you're still up on my mind (On my mind)
I hope you're fine (I hope you're fine)

I hope you're fine
I hope you're fine
I hope you're fine
I hope you're fine
I hope you're fine, I hope you're fine
I hope you're fine, I hope you're fine
I hope you're fine, I hope you're fine
I hope you're fine, I hope you're fine
