

Rain

UPSAHL

These clouds I see them getting darker
The air is becoming bitter
The sky is a masterpiece of it's own
And like a saw its letting go of its composure

It's two in the afternoon and it's raining
We're stuck inside, identical to our feelings
But this cool down won't stay for soon we'll be reminiscing
Just like I did when I wasted my time missing this

We've been getting news to this familiar static
Too scared to change and too afraid to fall
And now that it's raining it's a new impact on this unbroken fall

It's two in the afternoon and it's raining
We're stuck inside, identical to our feelings
But this cool down won't stay for soon we'll be reminiscing
Just like I did when I wasted my time missing this

Oh it's 2 in the afternoon and we're lying here
We're stuck inside this unfamiliar world
But this cool down won't stay for long soon we'll be reminiscing

Just like I did when I wasted my time missing this
Just like I did when I wasted my time missing this
