Side B

UPSAHL

How do you listen to things you've already heard?
What is left to bring to table?
Whom is there to love?
Where can you can you hear your heart beating?
Is it the record that you keep on side b
To play over and over again?

Oh, it's the mistakes that can break you
Oh, it's the tides you'll have to face that'll shake you
Oh, it's the color of the walls within the places you left behi nd
Oh, it's not the messages you keep
But it's the record that continues to play on side b

Bring the same books every times in a year
Waiting for the resolution to become clear
And there's no amount of words
That can bring your face this fear

Oh, it's the mistakes that can break you
Oh, it's the tides you'll have to face that'll shake you
Oh, it's the color of the walls within the places you left behi
nd
Oh, it's not the messages you keep
But it's the record that continues to play

Your time, choose to take time but slow down
Running too fast, you're running out of breath
This is the time where you defy the things
That are defining you

Oh, it's the mistakes that can break you
Oh, it's the tides you'll have to face that'll shake you
Oh, it's the color of the walls within the places you left behi
nd
Oh, it's not the messages you keep
But it's the record that continues to play

Oh, it's the mistakes you make that can break you
Oh, it's the tides you'll have to face that'll shake you
Oh, it's not the messages you keep
But it's the record that continues to play on side b
Oh, it's the mistakes you make that can break you
Oh, it's the tides you'll have to face that'll shake you
Oh, it's not the messages you keep
But it's the record that continues to play on side b
