

You can send me all the roses that you want, boy
You can tell me that you love me when you're bored, boy
'Cause you don't want me to hate you, but it's hard for me not
You can send me all the roses that you want

I can't get back those summer nights
I can't make truth in the lies
I lost my vision in your eyes
Hindsight, it's 20/20
I'm tryna focus on the highs
But we kept it low, I'm surprised
That you're throwin' your words like a knife
Drive-by, it's funny, funny

Now you comin' 'round like nothin' ever happened
Hide it in your place while you're tryna change your status
Got me in my feels, I snap back like an elastic
Real or plastic?

You can send me all the roses that you want, boy
You can tell me that you love me when you're bored, boy
'Cause you don't want me to hate you, but it's hard for me not
You can send me all the roses that you want
You can send me all the roses that you want, boy
You can tell me that you're sorry when you're drunk, boy
Because you want me to save you, but I already forgot
You can send me all the roses that you want

I used to do anything for you
And then you went breakin' the rules
You shoulda been playin' for two
You lose, sorry, honey

Now you comin' 'round like nothin' ever happened
Hide it in your place while you're tryna change your status
Got me in my feels, I snap back like an elastic
Real or plastic?

You can send me all the roses that you want, boy
You can tell me that you love me when you're bored, boy
'Cause you don't want me to hate you, but it's hard for me not
You can send me all the roses that you want
You can send me all the roses that you want, boy
You can tell me that you're sorry when you're drunk, boy
Because you want me to save you, but I already forgot
You can send me all the roses that you want

Send me all the roses that you want
Yeah, you can send me all the roses that you want
