

Sway

UPSAHL

Sway to this rhythm
Feel this beat
Feel it at the tips of your toes and at the bottom of your feet
Instead of standing there with boredom in your eyes
Sway to this rhythm with me
Woah-Woah-Woah-Woah
Woah-Woah-Woah-Woah

It's one too many sleepless nights of you staying here
It's been one too many lonely nights
When you're waiting around for something
It's a new intuition
And these stride lights, they're insistent
But you're staring at the break-light
It's reflecting your glassy eyes
So let them meet mine and we can lose track of time, woah
Finally succeeded at breaking your own ice
So while we breaking, will you?

Sway to this rhythm
Feel this beat
Feel it at the tips of your toes and at the bottom of your feet
Instead of standing there with boredom in your eyes
Sway to this rhythm with me

Woah-Woah-Woah-Woah
