

Body Conversation

Urban Cone

Sitting here with you in a dive bar
Thinking what to say all the time but it's so hard
So hard to be cool when you're looking the way you do
Everybody tells me it's easy
But everything I think of is way too cheesy
So hard to be cool when you're looking the way you do

Do you hear my body talk?
It's been talking to your body for hours
Can you hear my body talk?
Talk to you
I said, do you hear my body talk?
It's been longing for your body for hours
Can you hear my body talk?
Talk to you

I'm tryin' to tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
That my feelings they are real for you, real for you
So, let me tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
In a body conversation
I'm tryin' to tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
That my feelings they are real for you, real for you
So, let me tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
In a body conversation

I probably should tell you a story
But what if you would think that it's lame n boring
It's hard to be fun when you're naked inside my mind
I know it's getting late let's be honest
Can I take you home 'cuz you're all I ever wanted
So hard to be cool when you're looking the way you do

Do you hear my body talk?
It's been talking to your body for hours
Can you hear my body talk?
Talk to you
I said, do you hear my body talk?
It's been longing for your body for hours
Can you hear my body talk?
Talk to you

I'm tryin' to tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
That my feelings they are real for you, real for you
So let me tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
In a body conversation
I'm tryin' to tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
That my feelings they are real for you, real for you
So, let me tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
In a body conversation
In a body conversation
In a body conversation
In a body conversation
In a body conversation

Do you hear my body talk?
It's been talking to your body for hours
Can you hear my body talk?

Talk to you

I'm tryin' to tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
That my feelings they are real for you, real for you
So let me tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
In a body conversation
I'm tryin' to tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
That my feelings they are real for you, real for you
So, let me tell you how I feel for you, feel for you
In a body conversation
