

West Coast

Urban Cone

It's hard to feel good
When you took it all away
Yeah you took it all away
A part of me is missing
It's hard to forget
When you call my name
When you call my name
A part of me is missing

I try to stay cool
But the tears won't let me
No, the tears won't let me
'Cuz every part of me is missing you
Every part of me is missing you
Every part of me is missing you
So

I'm heading for the west coast baby
Nothing really works for me
I'm heading for the west coast baby
'Cuz nothing really works for me

Nothing really works for me
Nothing really works for me

The colors are gone
'Cuz you took them all away
Yeah you took them all away
A part of me is missing
I hate my home
But I love it anyway
Yeah I love it anyway
A part of me is missing

My highs are now lows
But my heart is beating still
My heart is beating
'Cuz every part of me is missing you
Every part of me is missing you
Every part of me is missing you
So

I'm heading for the west coast baby
Nothing really works for me
I'm heading for the west coast baby
'Cuz nothing really works for me

Nothing really works for me
Nothing really works for me
I'm heading for the west coast baby
'Cuz nothing really works for me
