

The One

Urban Zakapa

There were times you'd be
Everlasting to me
I can't explain, but had this stronger feeling

I knew that you'd become the one
But you never were
Little I've changed, the more you'll ever be

Baby, I can't forget
And you belong to me
The days we had
The times we shared
You were everything in my life

Baby, I'll try again
More than you could ever know
You'll always be
You will always be, the one

Remember we cast every night
Chasing endless light
The stars above
Never shined before us

Still I'm holding every trace of you
That you've ever left
Little I've changed, the more you'll ever be

Baby, I can't forget
And you belong to me
The days we had
The times we shared
You were everything in my life

Baby, I'll try again
More than you could ever know
You'll always be
You will always be, the one

Couldn't see that I was blind
But suddenly you fade away from me
I can't let you go

Baby, I can't forget
And you belong to me
The days we had
The times we shared
You were everything in my life

Baby, I'll try again
More than you could ever know
You'll always be
You will always be, the one

You will always be, the one
