

Mantra

URBANDUB

If I could change
Let weaknesses fall to the ground
Believe in yourself
The sooner you'll rise from under there
If I could
If I could fade
I'll slowly fade into the night
Horizons will share their spirits tonight
I will invoke them all
Honestly, visions they push us to see
We ride out in the open with your arms around me,
They come around
I'm never letting go
I never knew of taking new starts
If we could change
Soon we can rise from above it all
I believe we could
Believe it could change
If we could
Let all your weakness fall, if you're weak
Let all your weaknesses fall to the ground
If we could
We ride out in the open windows down
The rearview mirror marks the past
