

Back on Me

Urge Overkill

When I take you down, I don't wanna take you down.
Don't ask why I never been there, cause I don't know, oh no
If I close my eyes, I don't wanna close my eyes
There are dreams of phantom doorways there were dreams of you and me.

Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me

Will you drag me down, will you see just who I am.
Don't have much and never will have
But I got dreams yeah, yeah

Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me

TTurn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
Turn your back on me
