

Poison Flower

Urge Overkill

Sometimes I wonder why
I asked myself almost a thousand times
You keep it all inside
We've open a bottle of some "answer" wine
'Cause I wanna know

It's always the same
What in God's name have I done to you?
Who's left to blame?
Who's left on my side?
It's always the same
What in God's name have I done to you?

You're coming on just like some overdose
Ooh, it's your poison flower
Just squeeze me, tease me, so alone
Just like I'm dead and gone

Never take an apple from the Garden of Eden
Never take a hatchet to the Giving Tree
The leaves are fallen but the grass is green
'Cause I believe in me, ah-ha

It's always the same
What in God's name have I done to you?
