

Falling Under Your Spell

Uriah Heep

I see it, I feel it, temptation calls
I hear it, she haunts me as darkness falls
She's standing in the hallway and my head begins to spin
With this brand new fascination, it's a game I cannot win

Falling under your spell
So let the magic begin
Falling under your spell
Whoa, it draws me in
Falling under your spell
I'm beginning to see the light
Falling under your spell
I know, I know

I just can't believe it, she'll have her way
I follow, she leads me, I have no say
I see by her expression, as she keeps me hypnotised
I can't control this feeling, it's more than I realised

Falling under your spell
So let the magic begin
Falling under your spell
Whoa, it draws me in
Falling under your spell
I'm beginning to see the light
Falling under your spell
I know, I know

Falling under your spell
So let the magic begin
Falling under your spell
Whoa, it draws me in
Falling under your spell
I'm beginning to see the light
Falling under your spell
I know, I know
